Royal Conservatory of Music (RCM) Preparation Rules

String players (violin, viola, cello, double bass), winds and brass:

Piano accompaniment at the exam is mandatory. We provide all the preparation rehearsals and accompaniment at the exam for extra fee, or you can have your own piano accompanist. Once you have purchased the RCM set of repertoire books (piano and solo insert), this piano copy must be provided for the accompanist and solo book is for the student. One extra copy of music must be provided for the examiner, which means you need another original copy at the exam (can be either piano or solo insert), so unless you memorized all the selections from solo copy, you will need one extra. Also, extra technique book (scales and studies book and orchestral excerpts) is required at exam for the examiner. Klaudia's Music Studio Inc. keeps some spare original books you can borrow for this purpose free of charge. Please check with your teacher for availability.

All instruments and theory:

Please note that the exams are very complex and adequate time must be allocated to prepare students for the exam, including extra lessons, if necessary. Exam sign up process must be discussed with the teacher prior to registering. Teacher has the right to refuse completing the preparation for RCM if the parent enrolled the student to the exam without notice. Only the teacher can determine the readiness of the student at the time of the sign up.

Prior commitment to specific number of lesson for each month needs to be determined at the time of booking and cannot be modified after the payment is made.
